ORDER:

The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh has reported that Sri R.Suresh, ARPC 2248, West Godavari District now working in Government Railway Police, Vijayawada on deputation basis, has represented that he was initially appointed as PC in 3rd APSP Battalion, Kakinada in the year 2007 and subsequently appointed as ARPC in District Armed Reserve, West Godavari District in the year 2012. On 27.11.2013, he met with an accident and suffering from RTA - Blunt Abdominal injury involving right kidney and fractured of 9th, 10th and 11th ribs. The Civil Assistant Surgeon, Government General Hospital, Vijayawada, has advised him not to undergo strenuous work and prolonged standing and advised to do light work only. The Medical Board has opined that "This is a case of injury to right side of chest with rib fractures, injuries right kidney". He cannot withstand stress and strain. His food habits are also restricted and specified because of right kidney defect. Therefore considering health conditions, he was advised sedentary and stationery work, on medical grounds.

2. The Director General of Police has therefore recommended that Sri R.Suresh, ARPC having graduation qualification may be converted as Junior Assistant, on medical grounds as a special case.

3. Government after careful examination of the entire matter, hereby order for conversion of Sri R.Suresh, ARPC 2248, West Godavari as Junior Assistant in the existing or arising vacancies of Junior Assistant Posts in District Police Office, West Godavari, Police Range Office, Eluru, West Godavari or in Director General of Police Office, Andhra Pradesh, duly following the Roster Point, in relaxation of Rule 3 of APMS Rules, 1998, as a special case on medical grounds. He shall be assigned last rank next below the last regular candidate in the category of Junior Assistant duly forfeiting his seniority in the present post (Police Constable).

4. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh is requested to take necessary further action in the matter.
